*

Oswald slayer later died Jack Ruby

By FRANK VAN RIPER

"I can't explain what impression he gave me, but that is all I can . . . well, I just lost my sense. The next I knew I was on the ground and five or six policemen were on top of me," Ruby told the FBI.

as a tormented, sometimes belligerent, often emotional man whose decision to kill Lee Harvey Oswald appears to have Police Headquarters on Nov. 24, 1963 unnoticed into the basement of Dallas been made on the spur of the moment, released FBI documents, Ruby emerges minutes after From thousands of pages of newly managed S walk

"No one knew I was going to shoot him," Ruby, a Dallas night-club operator, told FBI agents. "I didn't discuss anything with anyone about shooting

Always Carried a Gun

It was easy, Ruby told the agents. He always carried a gun. You had to in the night-club business in Dallas, he he often carried large amounts of cash. For months, the FBI tried to detersaid. There were so many stickups and member of the man he murdered was that the man emerged from nowhere between two men. "That's all I can remember. Naturally, I know who he is. To me he had this quirky, smug, vindictive attitude. Washington (News Bureau) - All Jack Ruby said he could re-mine Ruby's motives. Was there a connection between him and Oswald? A one-time emcee in Ruby's Carousel Club, been in the club the night before Kennedy was killed. But the bureau found nothing to link Ruby and the Presi-Bill Demar, insisted that Oswald had dent's assassin.

held. These, too, were painstakingly aften to the chagrin of the sender. checked, often to the chagrin of Congratulatory letters and telegrams poured into the jail where Ruby was

Moved by Strong Emotion

sage. sheepishly admitted to the FBI that he tory wire saying, "Congratulations. You had been drunk when he sent the mes-FBI investigation of this man indicated killed a snake. Don't worry. I'll be in fancied himself a big spender. The man that he was "a heavy drinker" who Dallas and help you get a lawyer." The A Dallas man sent Ruby a congratula-

> Others simply were moved by strong emotion. A Key West, Fla., woman was in her doctor's office, being treated for a cold, when she and her doctor watched Ruby murder Oswald on television.

probably would not have done it had was a spur-of-the-moment thing. She wrote Ruby a warm letter of praise. It she thought more about it. She told agents she immediately the Oswald killing, too. It might have been that way with Oswald "being associated with communism and how he blemished this beautiful city, and Mrs. Kennedy having to come back for the trial." Ruby said. He said he thought about did, something in my insides tore out," "When he shot before me like he

Reached Into His Pocket

pocket and took out his gun. Then, Ruby said, he reached into his nounced dead. being transferred from Dallas County died of cancer three years later, after Kennedy and Oswald were also jail to Parkland Hospital, where both Ruby, convicted of Oswald's murder,