Dear Mr. Thomson,

Yesterday I received the two copies I had ordered of your publication The Quest for Truth and immediately read it from cover to cover. I should like to congratulate you on your achievement and some of the very valuable and original findings in the book. It is very heartening to know that a private citizen has made so great a personal sacrifice of time and money in an effort to establish the real facts about the assassination.

I was particularly interested in an item found in your Letters and Exhibits section, top of page 47---that is, your letter to Klein's. Can you please tell me the date of your letter to Klein's and also identify the advertisement you sent, specifying the exact rifle you ordered? I would be very grateful indeed for that information.

Again, my genuine congratulations on your remarkable and valuable work. With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,
