Dear Mr. Rose,

Thank you for your note and for the inaugural issue of The Third Decade. I was interested in several features of this edition. Enclosed is a subscription check and my survey response.

As noted, my primary interest and effort concerns the Robert Kennedy assassination, although important parallels exist between crime and coverup in the two cases. The institutional and investigative breakdown in RFK, for example, is quite remarkable. From your own stated interests in JFK, I think that you might be interested in some related RFK areas, including the legal and institutional efforts recently underway to force full disclosure. If so, please let me know.

Enclosed is an item on RFK which may be of interest; this is for limited use only, however, at this point. Good luck with your efforts.

Sincerely,

Gregory Stone

P.S. - For your information, pps. 18 and 19 of my copy of the current issue were blank. I've gotten these pages since from elsewhere, but thought I should pass this along re printing.

JFK ASSASSINATION

My primary expertise and involvement relates to the Robert Kennedy assassination, on which I've worked with Allard K. Lowenstein, Paul Schrade and others. Although the fact is little appreciated, the central incoherencies of the official theory of the RFK case are monumental and increasing. A police coverup has long persisted in Los Angeles, but can be overcome. Irresponsible work on the case merely aids the authorities; responsible, methodical and focused efforts can win substantial disclosure and force an honest reinvestigation.
