

FBI/Mrs Paul Calgrove/11/25/63

She went to Dallas, Texas, to the Carousel Club as a featured exotic dancer in the winter of 1961 and worked for Jack Ruby about six months under the name of Najada.

She had an argument with Ruby at the bar of the Carousel Club about New Years Eve 1961...He slapped her and she then spoke to a Lt or Captain of the D P D Vice Squad who was in the club at the time, stating she wanted to press charges against Ruby...the officer laughed at her and told her she was crazy...

She recalled that one dancer, Cathy Kay, white female, about 23, blond headed, from England, was ~~am~~ given a car by Ruby and he went with her a period of time....

She said that the husband of her former landlady, in Dallas, had been Leroy Hulse...a uniformed policeman...She said that Hulse told her several times of having bounced numerous people for the Vegas Club in Dallas, run by Ruby, and stated Hulse had possibly been employed on a part time basis by the Vegas Club as a bounder.

FBI 11/26/63 Herbet Kelly, former manager Ruby's Sovereign Club, kitchen and food service

He advised that Ruby was particularly friendly with law enforcement officers and sent out of his way to greet officers where ever he met them... plainclothes and uniform police and deputy sheriffs frequently came to the Sovereign Club to converse with Ruby and on numerous occasions after receiving a telephone call Ruby would go to the police station, not too far from the Sovereign Club.

FBI 11/24/63 Benny H Bickers, night club owner Dallas area

Bickers stated it was common knowledge that Ruby spent time almost every day at the Dallas Police Department and was furnishing information to several Dallas policemen regarding the operations of other clubs in Dallas. For this reason when Ruby was arrested for violation in his club he was released without any conviction. (CE 1517)
