

25 November 1966

Dear Mr. Sauvage,

As discussed last night, I have revised page xvii of the introduction by indicating that your book was published early in 1965 in the original French edition. Please insert this new page in the ms. and remove the old page xvii, which can be discarded.

I decided to remove altogether the passage of Jean Hill's testimony, which is only a marginal point and may dilute the impact of the preceding material. Therefore, I enclose also a revised page 28 to be inserted in the ms., and the old page 28 can be thrown away.

Your comments on the ms. were encouraging to me, because I know that you say exactly what you think. Please don't hesitate to be severe if you come to defects of fact, presentation, or reasoning—it is most helpful.

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
