New York, N.Y. 10014

Dear Miss Meagher:

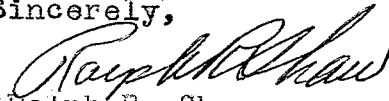

Our New York Office forwarded your letter of September 11 to me, since I am handling the editorial end of Scarecrow Press from the Honolulu address, above, at the present time.

Your index to the Warren report seems to me definitely to be of interest to us. While I can not make any commitment until I have examined the manuscript, I should like very much to see it.

I shall be in New York for the morning of Saturday October 9th and if you could leave the manuscript there for me a day or two before that would save having to mail it to me in Hawaii. I should be able to give you a firm response just as soon as I can spend an hour or so with the mss.

Please leave it, not later than Friday, October 8th, with Mr. Albert Daub, President, The Scarecrow Press on the 17th floor of 257 Park Avenue, South.

Sincerely,

Ralph R. Shaw
Vice President
The Scarecrow Press, Inc.
