Dear Mr. Daub,

One of my friends, Mrs. Shirley Martin, has mentioned that she never received the Subject Index, ordered a considerable time ago. At the time of the order, Mrs. Martin was at Box 566, Hominy, Oklahoma; but she has now moved to a new address, Box 226, Owasso, Oklahoma. I will be grateful if you would fill Mrs. Martin's order immediately. If there is any problem, please call me at Chelsea 2-4293.

Another friend and associate, Mr. Jones Harris, has been anxious to get hold of the Subject Index but since he is spoiled and lazy he does not seem to have sent an order. Please send him a copy of the Subject Index together with a bill; if he does not pay the bill, I will pay. Address it to:

Jones Harris
242 East 49 Street
New York, N.Y.

I will be interested to know how the sale of the Subject Index is going. In particular, should there be any prospect of a second printing, I should like to know as soon as possible so that I may indicate a number of revisions and additions. Please let me know what the situation is, at your earliest convenience.

You and Mr. Daub Sr. will be pleased to know that I have not heard again from General Walker.

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher
