Mrs. Sylvia Meagher
302 West 12th Street
New York, N.Y. 10014

Dear Mrs. Meagher:

In regard to your letter of August 6th, we have sent a copy of your book to Mr. Jones Harris. We have traced the copy to Mrs. Martin and there seems to be some question as to when it was sent. So to avoid any embarrassment on your part we have sent a second copy which she should receive in the next few days.

In regard to the sale of your book, as of this date we have sold slightly under 400 copies. The orders are still coming in quite satisfactorily. Of course we are not yet in need of a second printing. As soon as we approach the level when a second printing will be required, our editor will get in touch with you and discuss any questions that arise.

Incidentally, we too are delighted that you have not heard from General Walker again.

Cordially,
