

31 March 1967

Mr. Albert Daub, Jr.
Scarecrow Press
52 Liberty Street
Metuchen, N.J. 08840

Dear Mr. Daub,

Naturally I am sorry that Scarecrow Press has decided against publishing a second edition of the Subject Index. The pressure of various commitments will leave me little time to investigate the possibility of another publisher; but if one comes along, I will accept your kind offer to revert the copyright to me.

Meanwhile, I am enclosing an excerpt from a current article in which the Subject Index is mentioned in terms that I feel sure will be as gratifying to Scarecrow as it is to me. I continue to feel grateful to Scarecrow, and to Dr. Shaw, for having made it possible to offer this tool to those researchers who are using it.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher

302 West 12 St NYC 10014

Encl.

ff 294-295 f

American Scholar

Spring 1967

SEARCHED
SERIALIZED
INDEXED
FILED