Dear Mr. Silvers,

Tom Stamm was good enough to provide me with a new copy of his Zapruder film notes, as I mentioned to you on the telephone. You will find pages 7 to 9 of special interest. I expect Ed Epstein will return my original copy of Stamm's notes, in which case you are welcome to keep this one.

Stamm has just left for Mexico and Dallas and was therefore unable to scurry around for copies of the 7/29/66 New Statesman and the 8/1/66 London Observer. He was anxious to see the one-page stories on the Warren Commission in each of the publications. If your office could photocopy the two stories and send them to him, I know that he would be most appreciative.

I received a note this morning from one of the researchers with some information that may interest you--that Joachim Joesten (in Germany) released a press statement on 7/25/66 accusing LBJ of "having usurped presidential power in November 1963 by backing the conspiracy to assassinate his professor." Joesten is releasing a series of seven books in English, starting this month, detailing Oswald's CIA/FBI connections--by subscription only "to qualified persons" (scholars, political leaders, etc.) $30 a copy or $200 for the set of seven. Address subscriptions (no prepayment needed) to Joachim Joesten, 7891 Gurtweil, Germany."

Sincerely yours,
