Dear Mr. Downs:

May I suggest an excellent counter-balance to John Sparrow's views on the Warren Report? Sylvia Meagher has written a book which would fall somewhere between "the professors" and "The demonologists". It is entitled: Accessories After the Fact.

Mrs. Meagher lives in New York at 302 W. 12th Street. In preparing the only subject index to the full Warren Commission investigation, she gained an unequalled knowledge of the facts and their relatedness to each other. She would make a great guest for this reason and I sincerely hope you will consider her for a maximum time spot as soon as possible.

With best regards.

Sincerely,

Margaret Simmons

Know you appreciate me minding your business, Sylvia - but, Mr. Sparrow was too much — We need your cool approach to offset his brand of foolishness. Do go on if you are
