Dear Mr. Sorensen,

I regret that you are having difficulty in obtaining a photocopy of my SUBJECT INDEX TO THE WARREN REPORT AND HEARINGS & EXHIBITS. It is my impression that other interested parties have been able to xerox library copies without my permission as holder of the copyright. Since the problem of authorization has not arisen, prior to your letter of 21 March, there was no reason for me to prepare or distribute a "mimeo authorization." However, I am sending you herewith the requested authorization and trust that this will enable you to obtain a photocopy of the INDEX without further difficulty. I am sending you also a review of the INDEX which describes its contents, as well as some Errata.

Turning now to your questions concerning Garrison, let me make it clear that my misgivings about his "investigation" arose before any attacks were published or broadcast and were, as they remain, completely independent judgments on my part. These misgivings first arose with respect to the allegations of Perry Raymond Russo and Vernon Bundy, which I considered to have no vestige of credibility, in terms of the inherent nature of these stories and identifications of the "conspirators" accused by Garrison. I do not accept malodorous testimony even when it supports my point of view, since my objective is to expose the fraudulence of the Warren Report in order to establish the truth about the assassination, and not in order to substitute a different fraudulent version of events. You will find some of my reasons for repudiating Garrison in the enclosed copies of letters I have directed to editors of various periodicals.

I have not been contacted by Mr. Bob Ruark of WLCY but if I should be invited to be a telephone guest on his program, I should certainly be inclined to accept. The information you have given about the program and the audience sentiment with respect to the need for a new investigation is heartening.

Yours sincerely,
