Dear Dick,

Thank you for your letter of the 31st and the items from the Library of Congress catalogue. The Allen photo is the one in which two men are looking down at the grass, just west of the inlet, on the south side of Elm, as if indicating a bullet imbedded in the sod.

I was glad to see you the other night and to meet Gloria —with so many people around, I didn't get much chance to talk to either of you, as I should have liked to do. I did want to say how pleased I was when you paid tribute to Bob Richter for his hard work. I have personal knowledge of the efforts he made to inject some honesty into the CBS marathon and was quite angered by the attack made on him from the stage, unfairly and demagogically, when he could not defend himself.

Best regards.
