Dear Sylvia:

Thanks for the clarification on Sawyer's statement about a Dal Tex photographer. I had believed it must have been Zapruder, otherwise we surely would have heard more about it from someone. Harold is checking with the Secret Service just to make sure.

The man you heard about is Ted Slack. Some of the researchers thought he was the tramp. I recently obtained two photos of him, and let me assure you, he is not the tramp. He looks a lot less like him than Bradley. So I can't pay off just yet. Slack was an ONI man and is still in the Naval Reserve. He's also an extreme right winger, making speeches around the south in 1961-1963 a la Hall, Bradley, etc. His photo was in the Miami News upon the occasion of one of his speeches.

The other tramp, Frenchy, is Ernesto Pujiet, French descent, a cattle buyer, who was active in anti-Castro invasion plans, and checked into a hotel in Dallas four days before the assassination. We'll be locating him soon, I feel.

Regards,
