My dear Miss Margher,

I am thankful for the material you sent me. But it is puzzling. What is the Brand? Where is it published? Also, how appears to be more to the article than you sent. Is the rest available? What is the significance of the Carbon letter? Where did it appear? Where is the Analog published? You are dealing, you see, with a Provincial News Paper.

Deleber's address to the AQA was published

The History of an Assassin. Still a Feeder of Part.

But it has much of interest, as you will understand.

hope when your copy arrives.

I expect to go to Dallas in August. At this time I plan to do no more than get the physical feel of reading Olaya, the grassy knoll, and the overpass. Have you any ideas about how to get into the Depository Bldg without being an intrusive nobody? I will also look at the movie house, and take appropriate bus and taxi rides.

A piece of literature which may interest has just come to hand. It is an issue of "Notes from Underground" published in San Francisco at

1303 Rhode Island Street. It sells for $1.00

Issue contains blatantly erotic poetry and pseudo-artistic statuary in photographic reproduction, also erotic. & other content is one merged piece, "ET To Aubrey?" which, in sum, purports to be an historical reprint of a "chapter in an obscure history called Decline and Fall of the American Empire." The year of publication is some time after 2105 A.D. It is an ingenious thing, even though it is not through with errors of factual detail. Its virtue is its impetus for the reader and student to develop openmindedness toward the assassination and confront it as a political phenomenon.

Yours,

John S. [Signature]
