

Dear Sylvia,

1/22/6

Going to Philadelphia this Fri. Back late Sun. night

Two things occur to me:

1. Sen. Long steered Garrison into the Kennedy-assassination thing. Sen. Long had ambitions to be Majority Leader. He made Majority Whip. He came in to conflict with the Establishment. He probably represents local interests in conflict with other interests supporting the (Johnson) establishment. Now Kennedy, moving to capture the government (in 1972 or later) has displaced hanging as Whip. At this time ~~the~~^{the} Federal court rebuffed Garrison's effort to have a look at the KKK autopsy photos & X-rays. Immediately there were rumors of Garrison giving up the ghost. Provocative, isn't it?

2. Collapse of the Shaw trial or acquittal will leave a vacuum. Where does one go? What to do? I'm going to propose to Vince that some of us organize a seminar or conference with the participants submitting papers for discussion. If it works it may be possible to get press coverage and have the collected papers published as a demonstration of the scope, depth, and seriousness of the work done thus far.

If he agrees I'll propose an organizing committee on which I believe you should be an active participant, when the committee is in being it can discuss procedure, time, place, invitations, subject matter, and other matters. Yes?

Yours

Didn't Xerox here because they instituted a tight control of the use of the equipment. I don't know what I'll do in future.
