Dear Mr. Rivera:

Please forgive the presumption in sending you unsolicited material on the Kennedy assassination in which, it is clear, you have taken a keen interest. I was moved to do so by feelings of disappointment and frustration aroused by your program last Thursday night, which seemed to me to be another in a long series of lost opportunities to clarify issues, expose villainy, and establish truth.

I was tempted to undertake a systematic and detailed analysis of the program but would have to suspend research and writing on one of the actors in the assassination melodrama. Perhaps, if you are interested, we can meet and talk. It is possible I may make one or two helpful suggestions.

Very truly yours
