Dear Mr. Stamm:

This is in reply to your letter of April 3, 1975, concerning the records of the Warren Commission.

The following information pertains to the number of pages of the transcripts of proceedings of executive sessions of the Commission as listed in your letter:

Transcripts

December 5, 1963 (45 p.) - includes the cover of the transcript, an unnumbered page listing those present at the session, pages 1-42, a page identifying the pages withheld from research. The total for the complete transcript, when made available, would be 70 pages;

December 16, 1963 (63 p.) - includes the cover of the transcript, an unnumbered page listing those present at the session, pages 1-61 (pages 23-33 are now available for research);

January 21, 1964 (118 p.) - includes both sides of the front cover of the transcript and pages 1-126 with pages 63-73 withheld from research;

February 24, 1964 (8 p.) - includes both sides of the front cover of the transcript and pages 1596-1601;

March 16, 1964 (6 p.) - includes both sides of the front cover of the transcript and pages 2732-2735;

April 30, 1964 (45 p.) - includes both sides of the front cover of the transcript and pages 5850-5892;

June 4, 1964 (13 p.) - includes both sides of the front cover of the transcript and pages 6652-6662.

The executive session transcript of December 6, 1963 (28 p.), is now available for research. The transcript of January 27, 1964, has the declassification authority stamped on the front cover. The pages have the classification markings lined out. The total of 88 pages includes both sides of the front cover of the transcript and pages 127-212. We are enclosing both sides of the front cover of the transcript. Also enclosed are the electrostatic copies of the transcripts that you ordered in your letter.

Sincerely,

MARK G. ECKHOFF
