

Aug 1, 1925

Dear Sylvia,

Letter from Lifton. Sent copy of letter to Wecht to Scott at Berkeley. No word from Scott who is probably on vacation somewhere.

Letter from Rose Altman from D.A. in re letter to Wecht, copy of which went to Nation, accompanied with Xerox of her husband's letter to Nation, with request it be forwarded to Altman. Ms Altman says her husband died June 18 "about the time his letter appeared in print. The Nation had been informed of this fact." Will write her.

"Presumed Guilty" not improving. One thing clear - Weisberg, for uncharacteristic reasons.

permitted Roffman to read and quote his Post Mortem. Roffman requited him with praise. The result is to make it impossible to tell what part of Roffman's ideas is Weisberg's and what part is his own. The probability is the basic approach is W's and R's contribution is the opinions of a number of forensic pathologists.

It is possible W felt my probing of Buckley somehow impacted on his surrogate publication via Roffman.

But all this is apart from the argument of the Roffman book. As to that, more later.
May sends best.