

Among those who have specifically urged that the files of the Robert F. Kennedy assassination be made broadly available are the following:

- Professor Arthur Schlesinger, Jr. (historian and RFK biographer and friend)
- the late Allard K. Lowenstein (former U.S. congressman, U.S. ambassador, RFK friend, student of the assassination)
- Paul Schrade (Kennedy campaign official in 1968, RFK friend, wounded in assassination shooting)
- Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors (by unanimous vote, August 13, 1985)
- Dr. Henry Gwiazda (historian and RFK archivist at John F. Kennedy Presidential Library in Boston)
- Dr. David Wrone (Professor of History, University of Wisconsin; leading John Kennedy assassination scholar and bibliographer)
- Robert J. Joling (attorney, former President of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences)
- Los Angeles Herald-Examiner (editorial, March 6, 1986)
- Daily News (editorial, March 6, 1986)
- California Freedom of Information Committee (by Philip Bookman, chairman and editor of the Stockton Record)
- Freedom of Information Committee, California Society of Newspaper Editors (by Will Corbin, chairman and Editor of the Escondido Times-Advocate)
- American Civil Liberties Union of Southern California
- Dr. Gerald McKnight (Professor of History, Hood College)
- Martin Sheen (actor)
- Dr. Jere Bruner (Professor of History, Oberlin College)
- Frank Mankiewicz (RFK friend, RFK Press Secretary from 1966 to 1968)
- Dr. David Garrow (Professor of Political Science, City University of New York, author of The FBI and Martin Luther King, Jr.)
- Aubre Adams (Chief of research, "Robert Kennedy and His Times" TV mini-series)
- Hon. Don Siegelman (Secretary of State of Alabama)
- Lester Hyman (attorney, former Chairman of Massachusetts Democratic Party, RFK friend)

- Hon. Ruth Messinger (Member, New York City Council)
- Dr. Lauriston King (Professor of Political Science, Texas A and M)
- John H. Davis (author of "The Kennedys" and other books)
- David J. Mendelsohn (producer of "Thank You, Mr. President: The Presidential Press Conferences of JFK")
- Dr. Cyril Wecht (coroner, authority of John and Robert Kennedy assassinations, former president of American Academy of Forensic Sciences)
- The Center for Public Interest Law of the University of San Diego Law School