Dear Mr. Weinstein,

As we discussed last night on the phone, I am sending you herewith two excerpts from my manuscript on the Warren Report. One is a chapter titled "FBI Agent Hosty, Ruth Paine, and Oswald;" the other is an appendix to the manuscript, titled "The Unanswered Letters." I selected those two excerpts because they seem to me more readily understandable to a general readership than some of the chapters dealing with much more complex and detailed evidence.

I will make every attempt, as I promised, to prepare a 15-page review of the four major books on the Warren Report published this summer, by the end of September. I cannot guarantee that I will produce the review in time to meet your deadline, because of the various commitments I had undertaken before I heard from you, but you may be sure that I will try my best. In any case, I assume that you would not plan to publish both a book review and a chapter from my manuscript in a single issue?

I shall look forward to hearing from you when you have had a chance to read the enclosures.

Yours, sincerely,
