Dear Mr. Weinstein,

I am sending you herewith a third excerpt from my manuscript on the Warren Report—a chapter titled "The Short Bulky Package." David Marmelstein was good enough to Xerox it for submittal to Studies.

I received a note from your editorial assistant acknowledging receipt of the material I sent you on the 23rd but I should still like to know whether you would contemplate publishing both a review of the four books and an excerpt from my manuscript in a single issue. Perhaps you will find a moment to phone or drop me a note.

I have made a start on the review and should have something for you well within the six-week deadline you mentioned.

Yours sincerely,
