Dear Sylvia Meagher:

Please excuse our failure to notify you that we accepted your review. It is now at the printer and will appear in the forthcoming issue.

I have been extremely busy the last few weeks, since I am engaged in an independent campaign for Congress in the 19th CD. That by way of excuse, if one is possible.

Obviously, we are satisfied with the review and very much in debt to you for your rushing it to us. We will do better in the future, I promise.

Sincerely,

Jim Weinstein
