

20 August 1965

Dear Mr Jenner,

Forgive me if I say that I am surprised and concerned at the non-arrival of the letter you volunteered to write during the week of July 19th. It seems to me that the questions on which I requested clarification in my letter to you on June 22nd are legitimate and important, and that they should be answered. I hope that I may still expect the promised reply?

Yours very sincerely,

Sylvia Meagher

(No Reply Received)