Dear Mr. Geller,

After sending the enclosed letter to Miss Heathcote, I gladly agreed to her request to hold on to my personal copy of the Subject Index to the Warren Report "for another week or two."

That was on 27 August 1968, and now almost two months have elapsed.

I shall be very grateful to you if you will please have the Subject Index returned to me, if possible by return mail. I do appreciate very much the efforts you have made on behalf of my work and I do not wish to appear impatient, but actually I had thought last May that the book would come back the next day.

Sorry to bother you.

Yours sincerely,
