

DRAFT: FORM LETTER TO RESEARCHERS AND CRITICS

Dear _____,

The original Scarecrow Press edition of the Subject Index to the WR and the H&E is now out of print and a revision is under preparation for publication by The Public Affairs Press. The revised Index will incorporate ~~minimum~~ additional subjects and ~~substantive~~ citations and will seek to make greater use of sub-headings, cross-references, and descriptive data. ~~EMM~~ The need for such elaboration and refinement has suggested itself in my own use of the Index.

It may be that you have encountered problems or shortcomings in the Index which might be eliminated in the revised edition. I should welcome it greatly if you would be good enough to ~~submit~~ send me as soon as possible any suggestions for changes ~~which would make the Index a more useful~~ ^{additional} tool for the researcher, and any citations which should be incorporated under various headings. It would be helpful if you would also ~~im~~ ~~me~~ indicate any typographical or substantive errors which appear in the Index.
