

22 May 1979

Dear Tony,

I am not feeling well enough to see you or to do any chores on the case. It seems to me that you are all set anyhow and can clear up any further loose ends by consulting the literature. I am sure that your book will be a great success on the strength of your own labors and effort.

Sincerely yours,