

It appears from paragraph 4 and also from later correspondence that Walter Jenkins was closely involved in the investigation of the assassination. I wonder whether he knew anything of historical interest? He is, of course, now effectively silenced, on all public issues.