

STOREY, ARMSTRONG & STEGER
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

27TH FLOOR REPUBLIC NATIONAL BANK BUILDING
DALLAS, TEXAS 75201
RIVERSIDE 2-8844

R. G. STOREY
E. TAYLOR ARMSTRONG
HUGH L. STEGER
ROBERT G. STOREY, JR. (1921-1962)
CHARLES F. STOREY
ROBERT M. MARTIN, JR.
JOHN K. DELAY, JR.
PAUL S. ADAMS, JR.
WILLIAM L. BEDARD
DONALD A. SWANSON, JR.
DONALD W. JACKSON

OF COUNSEL:
C. BURCHAM BUDD

March 18, 1964

C

My dear Mr. Chief Justice:

You will probably be interested in the lead article in the Dallas Morning News of today concerning the comments of our associate, General Waggoner Carr, relating to the behavior of Melvin Belli in the Jack Ruby case.

O

While this does not bear directly on the facts, it is pertinent to the function and administration of the rule of law in which I know you have a deep interest.

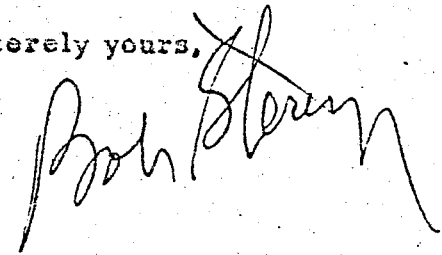

P

I am sending a copy of this letter and the article to our mutual friend, Lee Rankin. I might add that the leaders of the Bar in Texas disapprove of the conduct of Mr. Belli, especially his "tirade" immediately after the jury rendered its verdict.

Y

With continued best wishes and highest esteem, I am

Very sincerely yours,

The Honorable Earl Warren
Chief Justice of the United States
The Supreme Court
Washington, D. C.

bcc: Honorable Lee Rankin
General Waggoner Carr
Honorable Leon Jaworski