

Paragraph 4: Perhaps Carr was inadvertently overlooked; on the other hand, the Commission may have feared that he would not find Marina quite so credible as did Warren and most of his fellow-Commissioners. Jaworski and Storey respectively were present at later hearings of Marina Oswald. Interestingly enough, the AEA representatives (Craig, and his assistants Murray, Powell, and Rhyne) were not present at any of the hearings of Marina Oswald.