Dear Mrs. Meagher -- I wanted to consult with you on one minor editing change in your manuscript. There was this sentence: "...But after remarks by John McCloy and Allen Dulles deploring articles which had ~~appeared~~ appeared in Europe and a deep-seated feeling that there is a deep conspiracy here," Warren said, "That is the thing that prompted me to get these men."*

I changed the "and" after the word "Europe" to "about."
Is that right?

Best
