Dear Miss Northcott,

I had a pleasant and interesting visit to Dallas last month but did not find it possible to make my way to Austin or to try to reach Greg Olds.

I am wondering if you are still planning to publish the article on the Charles Givens documents, "How to Manufacture a Lone Assassin." If so, can you indicate the approximate date, and also send me one copy by first-class mail when the article appears? I should be most grateful.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,
