

Sylvia:

The Kupferman letters (Appendix E) fall as follows, if you want to try to do something with them:

286	Kupferman's statement before House
287	" " " "
288	" " " "
289	Letter fr Kupferman to Bahmen (sp from designer)
289	Letter from Bahmen
289	Letter from Brooks Marshall
290	Letter to Lyndon Johnson
291	Letter from White House
291	Letter from Knott

This is the way the designer gave it to me, but on looking it over I'm not inclined to trust it wholeheartedly. Do as you think best.

The documents (Appendix G) are impossible at this time, and I wouldn't want to delay you waiting for them. Actually, omitting them from the index is not disastrous, since they are referred to in the text when the names occur, and reader who has been directed to name (Tague, or whatever) by index will be in turn directed to the document in the appendix.

The five pages for index should not inhibit you unduly. They are large pages (book is 6 5/8 by 9 1/2) and index will run triple column in small type, so they will hold a lot of copy. If necessary we can sacrifice one of the half title pages, but it shouldn't be necessary.

It should be an interesting fall for all of us.
