

Haverford College
Haverford, Pa. 19041

10/16/67

Monday night
Dear Sylvia,

The first review -- how exciting!! I can't imagine how it will seem to have advanced that far.

Just Wednesday I saw it out on the presses. I was making corrections up until 5 minutes before press time, so I'm not very sanguine about the possibility of having an error-free book. But if this is a second printing we can catch some of the errors there.

I just heard on CBS tonight that (on a defense motion) the Show Trial has been postponed until February. I breathed a great sigh of relief. Garrison's letter was rather windy but then I didn't think of Quin's editorial

Haverford College
Haverford, Pa. 19041

was a masterpiece of lewdty & ether.

The Philosophy Department here had a meeting with the alumni Friday night. Someone asked me about the CBS fraud and I attacked it in detail & rather vehemently. Unbeknownst to me, one of the CBS house counsel was in the audience. He rose to defend CBS using the typical evasion "Well, Mr. Thompson you seem to see conspiracies everywhere, blah blah." I shield him up, and after the meeting he made a veiled threat of legal action against me. Puncturing Walter Combat and essentl windbags will be supreme pleasure at next month.

I'm going to Washington on Saturday and if I get out of jail soon thereafter I hope to be up to D.K. Let's go out & celebrate the fact that all our production work is done.

all the best, Sylvester
— Lind