Dear Tink,

I hope your stint on "Contact" (TV) last Friday went well. I was glad to be spared the trip. I hope that the party also went well, last Saturday night, and that you had a chance to talk things out with Vince.

It's been another fierce week and I'm still on alert in case I need to fly down to Miami Beach. My father is not doing too well, and I can't seem to get a straight story from his doctor or anyone else.

Last Saturday I wrote to Roy Marcus about various matters including his letters to you. I did point out that you had offered me all your new material last February and that I could not reconcile that, or your subsequent mentions of Accessories on TV and radio, with ulterior motives or self-interest. Meanwhile, I've had a letter from him saying that he received your reply. Apparently he has not budged an inch. I still hope things will straighten out.

Any more rumblings from LIFE? etc.?

All the best,

Hastily,

Sylvia
