Dear Vince:

After our telephone conversation last Saturday, I have given much thought to what you have told me on that occasion and to your offer, together with Ray Marcus, to write an article for MO about it. The more I thought about the matter, the more confirmation did I find for my initial reaction, as expressed to you. Two days ago I wrote a letter about it to Ray Marcus, and it now occurs to me that in fairness I should send you a copy of that letter. It is here enclosed.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

M. S. Arnoni
