Dear Sylvia,

Mon. afternoon

It was swell to see you yesterday and to find out how well our books are going to complement each other. It's the right date & fingerprint date -- you probably have the latter.

We checked on Kennedy's sketch. Couldn't find anything relevant in David Sanders -- do I have the room right. JFK remains on sketch until coffin arrived (1:42 P.M.?). Then sketch was taken to TR 2. This would put the movement so late that it couldn't be either Tomlinson's two sketches. Am I getting something mixed up here?

Hope to see you soon again. Anything you can throw further respect to the death-getaway I'd be grateful for. Jim is out a missing information on all this. Best love, Ted
