Dear Sylvia,

Thanks so much for the Krebs review. I actually met him in San Francisco. He writes for various religious publications and told me last January that he was working on a joint review of our books.

Here is my belated reply to Aloney's correspondence of last Aug. & Sept. I believe I sent you at the time copies of his letters. This CBS thing becomes more and more fraudulent the more one gets to know about it.

Although Solondra thinks I'm an agent, one of his clerks I suppose called me up to check a reference. I told him I could not comment on the President's assassination without first getting permission (in writing) from the Agency. I hope he'll understand that when you're in govt. service you can't be too careful what you say.

Best,

Tim
