Dear Mr. Hoch:

I apologize for not having replied sooner to your letter of October 29, 1970. Unfortunately, I have been deluged with several unexpected professional responsibilities, on top of a regular packed schedule.

I do not know when I shall have the time to answer your questions in specific detail. I hope that things will taper off somewhat in the weeks ahead.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., J.D.
