Dear Sylvia:

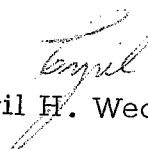

Your letter of 8 February 1972 just arrived. It is quite relevant to the letter that is enclosed.

Perhaps I shall give Judge Kupferman a call next week, and find out what he thinks should be done. I spoke with my friend, Dean Davenport of the Duquesne University Law School, and he thinks that I should be patient a little while longer. He seems to feel that Marshall will eventually accede to my request.

Let's keep in touch.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., J.D.
