OFFICE OF THE CORONER

May 18, 1972

Mrs. Sylvia Meagher
302 West 12th Street
New York, New York 10014

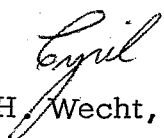

Dear Sylvia:

The enclosure was just sent to me by John Nichols, and I thought that you would like to have it for your files. He plans to appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court. I admire his tenacity and spirit, but I am not the least bit optimistic about his chances for success.

I enjoyed talking with you last Monday evening, and I think your suggestion to contact Jack Anderson is an excellent one. Let us wait two to three weeks more. Then, if I have not heard from Burke Marshall, or if I am turned down, I shall try to contact Anderson either through my Congressman (who is a friend), or by some other appropriate individual.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., J.D.
