Mrs. Sylvia Meagher
302 West 12 Street
New York, New York 10014

Dear Sylvia:

Thank you very much for your extremely kind and gracious comments of October 2nd.

I wonder how the New York Times got a copy of this article. More importantly, I wonder if it will possibly stir them in any way.

I would like to get more attention than the readership of MODERN MEDICINE. I think that I shall write to them and ask their permission to republish the article in some other journal, after it has first appeared in theirs next month. Do you think that I should try to submit it to some lay magazine, or to a professional journal with wide circulation such as JAMA, the New England Journal of Medicine, or the American Bar Association Journal?

With kind regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., J.D.
