Miss Sylvia Meagher
302 West 12th Street
New York City, New York 10014

Dear Miss Meagher:

I enjoyed talking with you several days ago, and I am happy to learn of your interest in the paper that I presented at the 18th Annual Meeting of the American Academy of Forensic Sciences in Chicago last February.

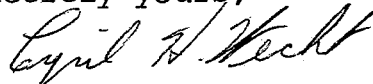

Unfortunately, I have since learned that I spoke too quickly that evening. According to the rules of the Academy, of which I am a Fellow and therefore obligated to adhere to such rules, I am not permitted to give anyone a copy of the paper until it has been published in the Journal of Forensic Sciences, the official publication of the Academy. If you would still like to receive a copy after that time, I would be very happy to send you one.

I am sorry that I did not have an opportunity to call and meet with you during my recent trip to New York City. As a matter of fact, I was a guest on the Long John Nebel Show on Friday evening, April 8, and the subject of President Kennedy's assassination came up for considerable discussion. As could be expected, it evoked immediate response from the listening audience!.

Perhaps I shall have an opportunity to meet you the next time I visit New York City. In the meantime, I would certainly be anxious to learn of any new developments regarding this matter, and I would appreciate it if you would keep me informed of any new articles or other materials published regarding the assassination.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., LL.B.
