Dear Miss Meagher:

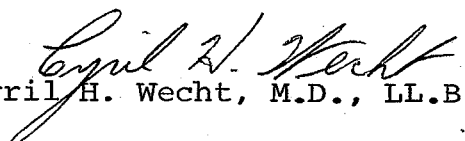

Thank you very much for your interesting letter of 27 April 1966. I must admit that I am extremely curious and anxious to learn more about the incidents that you related in your letter, although I can appreciate the fact that you are sworn to secrecy.

I shall look forward to hearing from you again as soon as you are free to discuss these matters in more detail. In the meantime, I shall also plan on reading Mr. Epstein's book as soon as I learn of its publication.

Thank you for keeping me informed. If the events occurred as your sources have related, then I agree with you that it would be absolutely incredible and horrifying.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., LL.B.
