Dear Sylvia:

Thank you for having sent me a copy of your recent letter to Ted Kupferman and for copies of several reviews on your book.

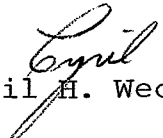

I am delighted to read such wonderful book reviews, although I am not at all surprised. You have really done an outstanding job and have compiled a work that you can always be proud of (no matter what happens or develops in this matter in future years).

Do you think that Kupferman will make any further attempts to obtain access to the autopsy photographs and x-rays at the National Archives? I hope he does even though I am pessimistic about the possibilities of the Kennedys (for after all, it is really they and not any nominal officials who are calling the shots on these items) changing their mind. Nevertheless, it is vitally important and absolutely necessary for public attention to be kept focused on these matters. Without continuing and increasing public interest and clamor, there will never be any kind of re-investigation of the assassination.

I shall give you a call the next time I am in New York. In the meantime, please keep me posted on any new developments.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., LL.B.

P.S. Of course, I note that one review from the Springfield, Missouri newspaper was quite unsympathetic. I guess there must be a certain degree of comfort and security gained by having a non-intellectual, an unthinking type of cerebral cortex. Something akin to being a domestic animal, I would imagine!
