Dear Mr. Gough:

Thank you for your invitation to participate in a program to be sponsored by your organization on Monday, 12 February 1968, at the Orpheum Theater in New York City. I have made some changes in my schedule locally so that I would be able to attend your Meetings. Please let me know more about the format of these Meetings - i.e., total time available, number and identity of other panelists, number and type of people in audience, etc.

It is certainly agreeable with me to pay for my transportation at this time and to be reimbursed by your organization later on. Along these same lines, I should like to mention that it most likely would not be possible for me to catch the last plane back to Pittsburgh on Monday evening, February 12. Consequently, I shall have to stay over in New York and leave the following morning. If it is all right with you, I shall make my own reservation at one of the New York Hotels, and this item could be included in the final reimbursement.

I shall look forward to hearing from you prior to the February 12 Meetings.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., LL.B.

P.S. What do you know about this group? They told me that they have been in touch with you and implied that you are sympathetic to, if not active in, their organization's objectives. Perhaps we can meet in New York that night should you have any free time.
