Dear Sylvia:

I enjoyed talking with you by phone a few days ago. I should like to extend my sincere sympathies to you on the death of your father.

I hope that Trent Gough is not too disappointed or disturbed. I appreciate your information and advice concerning this matter.

I hope that we can get together in New York City during my next visit in March. I shall let you know when I am coming once plans have been finalized.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., LL.B.
