Dear Sylvia:

What a coincidence to receive a copy of your letter of 20 April 1969 addressed to the Editor of the New York Times Magazine concerning the recent article by Epstein. I was really upset and very angry when I read his article. Your description of a "pseudoscholar who is really making it" would seem to fit him beautifully.

I had thought of writing directly to Epstein and/or to the New York Times Magazine, but I do not know if it would really accomplish anything. Do you think it would serve any useful purpose for me to write a short note?

Have you ever had an opportunity to review the transcript of my testimony in the Washington, D.C. trial? If so, I would certainly welcome your thoughts and critical comments.

Please let me hear from you in any event and bring me up to date on any significant new developments.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Cyril H. Wecht, M.D., LL.B.
