

10/10/70

Sylvia, Gary, May, Hal,

Now that I have his address and can send him the letter I wrote a week ago, here is the copy of my letter to Flammonde about which I wrote you 10/3.

In this week, nothing has happened to diminish my concern over the evil of which he is capable and its potential for helping ruin what as of now is as close to an airtight case as one can hope for, as some of you have seen.

A little worse, in the course of checking some things with Jim Lesar in Bud's office yesterday, I noticed a letter he wrote Bud indicating Bud would be paying all of his expenses. This would seem to include a trip to England -and after I had gotten Bud his client and given him his case.

There is more I just am not up to going into.

This is all in confidence, for your information only. I hope what is possible does not eventuate. But I also want you to know in case it does and so that, if you are in a position to and of a disposition to, you may report to me anything you may learn that may seem relevant. I would like to be able to protect my own interests and those of all of us.

There is a limit to how much of this crookedness we'll be able to survive.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
