

Sylvia, From the length of the last Bandy show as broadcast, they seem to have edited half out. Up tight as they were and hard as I had to fight to get on, I suppose that was to have been expected. Aside from fear of the government, they were terrified of the cost of defending a spurious libel suit by Foreman, who threatened it at least three times. I take it there is some embarrassment, for I've not yet gotten the promised sound tapes, even the edited ones. I know they used one of "uie's nastier moments to promo. BUT, there was no whitewash no one side, and the only reaction I've gotten (they also refused to give out my address, although they promised to) was good. We'll have full tapes, but I do not think they'll interest you. Except as "uie refers to meeting RPK, if that was not edited out. I am not at all certain that what he said is the literal truth, for it is not quite what he said (and I have) under oath. It is also subject to misreading. Not that Bobby wasn't scared, tho. Best regards, H
